

Moving Checklist

Four weeks before the move. Have you:

- Confirmed the removal date
- Prepared an inventory for customs
- Prepared a valuation for insurance
- Supplied a contact number for when you leave the house
- Supplied your new overseas address, and an address before you move to your new home
- Disposed of goods not going
- Obtained invoices for car and new purchases
- Checked on resident permits, imports permits, work permits etc.
- Checked passports are valid

Three weeks before the move. Have you:

- Agreed on comprehensive insurance
- Been vaccinated (or complied with any health regulations for the new country)
- Checked regulations for pets
- Asked for an electricity final account
- Asked for a gas final account
- Cancelled all rental agreements
- Notified your insurance company
- Cancelled subscriptions of magazines, clubs etc.

Two weeks before your move. Have you:

- Obtained medical certificates
- Found marriage and birth certificates
- Thought about cashing in remaining car tax
- Obtained the car log book
- Fulfilled any outstanding HP agreements
- Arranged for all mail to be forwarded
- Paid comprehensive insurance premium
- Washed and cleaned garden tools

One week before you move. Have you:

- Cancelled newspapers
- Arranged for someone to look after the children during the removal
- Arranged banking facilities at your new country
- Arranged for mains services to be disconnected
- Checked your own travel arrangements

One day before your move begins. Have you:

- Personal items separated to travel with you
- Food in the house
- An empty, clean fridge or deep freeze
- The milk bill paid
- Confirmation of arrival time
- Fitted carpets loosened
- All mains services disconnected
- Passports

- Vaccination certificates
- Marriage certificate
- List of unaccompanied luggage
- Keys of trunks, cases etc.
- All necessary receipts
- Spare cash for your journey
- Addresses of friends, relatives etc.
- Address of your remover's agent at destination

On the day you move:

Relax - you're in good hands with Clark & Rose